134	To receive Membership Report As Penny Lynch was unable to attend the meeting, no membership report was received.
135	To receive an update on the Town Competition Linda Freeman reported that the competition had been well supported. Responses to the presentation evening were being received. Wendy Usher Bacon reported that both Linda Freeman and herself were visiting the Beverley Conservative Club to discuss how the room should be set out and parking. Linda Freeman had contacted Jim Whitfield and he had agreed to be “mc” for the evening. Refreshments will be available. The flower demonstrator is making three arrangements which will be donated as raffle prizes. There will be two additional gardening raffle prizes. Members felt this was sufficient. All the Certificates are prepared and need to be signed by Linda Freeman and the Mayor of Beverley before they are laminated. On the rear of the certificates for the Gold Awards the “judges’ comments” are going to be attached to the rear to give feedback to the entrants. A photographic slide show will be shown on the evening.
136	To receive an update on the newsletter Wendy Usher Bacon reported the next newsletter is going to be prepared in January and asked for articles for the newsletter. Members said the last newsletter was very good. Members considered places where this could be left for members of the public to read. The library and the businesses which had entered the Town Competition were considered. Discussion took place about a Beverley in Bloom on 2018 Calendar.
137	To receive an update on the Tesco Project Clive Waddington asked for volunteers for working on the Tesco triangle on Monday. Tony Ashby, Peter Dack and Linda Freeman volunteered. It was thought that the height of the soil would need to be reduced in the triangle to allow for bark to be placed on top of it which will help with suppressing the weeds. Hallgate will deliver the bark. If the soil is not reduced, the bark will fall away. The hedging will be planted as the fencing is now in place.	All volunteers

	David Ryley said that an arm chair had been deposited in this area and this area is becoming a tipping area. The staff at Tesco are doing their best to keep the area clear of rubbish. Clive Waddington is to speak with East Riding of Yorkshire Council regarding the siting of a bin in the area and members felt that rubbish would be reduced once the area was planted up. The Deputy Town Clerk to provide contact details. David Ryley said that once the project was signed off Beverley in Bloom were able to apply again for another project. The scheme has changed and the sums of money were now £4000, £2000 and £1000. Some of the ideas set out in the Yorkshire in Bloom Judges' report could be used to apply for another grant.	The Deputy Town Clerk/Clive Waddington
138	To consider a replacement of the Co-Ordinator who is retiring in 2018 Linda Freeman reported that Lance Wardell had been approached with a view to being the Co-Ordinator. Lance Wardell is to have a meeting with Linda Freeman and Clive Waddington in order to find out what is involved before any decisions are made by Lance Wardell or the group. Lance is very involved with the allotments on Queensgate.	Linda Freeman/Clive Waddington
139	Any Other Business Linda Freeman reminded members they need to inform her if they intended attending the celebratory meal on the 18th October. Clive Waddington reported that both he and Marion Waddington had done a tour of the other towns that had entered the Yorkshire in Bloom and they are happy to put on a presentation to the Group. Some of the towns had a "thank you" board for sponsors and a map of where to find the bloom containers. A date is to be set to discuss the way ahead for Beverley in Bloom.	Linda Freeman  Clive Waddington
